Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can use over his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisement should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon The Ledger for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following hints:

For Notices of Successes, weddings, funerals or other public entertainments, a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, relatives of the deceased, do. The Ledger will charge five cents a line, and hereafter will be the inevitable rule. This, however, does not include of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must be inserted free of charge.

Notices of Disasters,

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for business notices in The Ledger is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. The rate for obituary notices is 5 cents a line for the first insertion and 2 cents a line for subsequent insertions.

For Notices of Successes, we charge five cents a line, and hereafter will be the inevitable rule. This, however, does not include notices of disasters, of lodge meetings or church services, which must be inserted free of charge.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

ONE CENT.

When sermons are ten minutes long and never state a fact; When congregations rise and pay before they pass the hat; When silver jingles everywhere and banks go not to small; When bill collectors are to spare and people buy for cash; When politicians join the church and come to plot and plan; When there are fifty offices to every business man; Then will be the great million-up dawn to right, but alas!

You'll die while you are waiting for these things to come to pass!

On Wednesday, October 9th, is the 54th anniversary of the great fire at Chicago.

Dr. H. K. Adamson, is a candidate for Representative on the Democratic ticket.

"I was troubled for a long time with an itching humor on the scalp," says Mr. D. P. Davis, Neale's Landing, Fla., "but at last, being recommended Ayer's Hair Vigor, I tried it, and a complete cure was effected." Everyone who has used it speaks well of this dressing.

Colonel W. O. Bradley will speak at the Courthouse in this city next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

One of Mason's solid Republicans remarked to us yesterday, about the convention: "It was the greatest outrage ever perpetrated. Let me tell you, if the Republicans at large had had the least idea that such a thing was contemplated the Courthouse wouldn't have held the crowd."

Yesterday's Great Fake.

Our Team Failed to Arrive, and a Choose-Up the Reins.

Yesterday was the day the two great ball clubs were to meet in battle array at East End Park.

But yesterday was the day they didn't meet, though no fault of the Mayville management, however.

The Cincinnati Reds arrived on the 1:30 "P. D. Q." on the C. and O., and when they left Cincinnati the men that were to play here with the Mayville team were at the depot when the train left, and Mr. Bancroft knew there was no team here to play the Reds unless these men came up. He wouldn't volunteer to pay their fares and have the money refunded when he got here for fear the Reds would be defeated.

Here's the exact reason why Messrs. Knorr, Tannehill, Letimer and others didn't arrive to play with our team: Mr. C. B. Ryan of the C. and O. personally knew nothing of the telegraphic order for the tickets until after No. 2 had left Cincinnati. In telephoning the order from Mr. Ryan's office to the Grand Central clerk receiving it made it read ten tickets for Mr. Bancroft, but omitted the six tickets for Mr. Knorr. Mr. Knorr and his men arrived at the station just on No. 2's leaving time, and before the matter could be straightened out by telephone the train departed. Mr. Ryan, upon learning of the same, made every effort to locate Mr. Knorr and his men, but could not do so until 1:30 p. m., when Mr. Knorr was found at Bellevue.

Mr. Ryan offered to run a special train in order that they might reach Mayville in time for the game, but Mr. Knorr said he could not get his men together in time.

With the above facts it is to be seen that Colonel C. B. Ryan did all that he could to get the men here, but failed through no cause of his own.

Mr. Ryan and the C. and O. are not to be blamed at all.

Oh, it was a bait, and no mistake! After dinner at the hotel the matter of getting a club to play the Reds was a serious problem, which was soon solved.

And here's the way they fixed the clubs:

Miller—Pitcher. Gray—Catcher. Frank Purcell—First base. Holliday—Second base. Labadie—Shortstop. Suberland—Third base. Rob Moore—Right field. Clarke Rogers—Center field. Ben Cox—Left field.

That was the layout for Mayville, some unformed like "Balforders."

After "monkeying" until dark they managed to play seven and a half innings, at the end of which the score stood:

Cincinnati.....11 Mayville.....11

The game was called and Umpire Ban left it back to the seventh inning, which made the score—

Mayville.....11 Cincinnati.....11

And that settled it!

Southern Synod Convenes Today. The Rev. Dr. Glas, retiring Moderator, came in on the morning train and will preach the opening sermon at 7:30 tonight at the Central Presbyterian Church.

All who expect to entertain delegates will confer a favor on the committee if they will be present to take charge of their guests. The synod will be in session the remainder of the week.

Sessions open to the public and all who come will be made welcome.

THE HUGHES CASE.

The Coroner's Verdict Holds the Trainmen Responsible.

George Hughes, the unfortunate man who fell off the Huntington Accommodation near Springdale Saturday night, striking on the head, being killed almost instantly, was buried yesterday.

The coroner held an inquest over the remains, and the verdict of the jury was that "he came to his death through the negligence of the trainmen by not stopping the train."

It is possible that the train crew—engineer, fireman, brakemen, conductor and collector—knew that Mr. Hughes was going to fall off the train? If he did they were smarter than most crews.

But we fail to see why the crew of the train should be held responsible for the man's falling off, when he had no business being on the platform of the car while the train was in motion.

The train stopped at the station, and why did Mr. Hughes desire to get off before the train reached the point it usually stopped at?

But it was against the Currier's Jury knew what it was about when it brought in the verdict!

LEWIS COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

They Instructed For a Mason County Man—None to Vote For.

At a meeting of the Republicans of Lewis county, held at the Courthouse in Vancuburg on Saturday, October 5th, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Republican Convention, to be held in this city Saturday for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate for the State Senate in the Thirty-first Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Mason and Lewis, Samuel G. Hillis was appointed Chairman and John E. Littleton Secretary.

The following named persons were appointed delegates to the Mayville Convention:

Marshall Betts, John B. Book, James Cooper, D. L. Jenkins, Dr. A. D. Hendrickson, A. B. Poller, Dr. William Bowman, John Hendrickson, A. G. Wilson, Thomas A. Mitchell, John E. Littleton, S. G. Hillis, J. G. Fuch, Ed. Williams, George W. Deane, Dr. J. P. Huff, W. C. Hader, W. B. Pugh, David Smith, W. A. Plummer.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That Mason county is entitled to the candidate for the Senate in this Senatorial District, and the delegates appointed by this convention are instructed to vote for the nomination of the candidate agreed upon by the Mason County Republicans in their County Convention, and the delegates from Lewis county are instructed to vote as a unit in the nomination of a candidate and upon all questions, which may come before the convention."

It was ordered that the proceedings of the convention be published in The Vancuburg Sun and The MAYSVILLE PUBLIC LEDGER.

The convention then adjourned.

SAMUEL G. HILLIS, Chairman John E. Littleton, Secretary.

But notwithstanding the above a Lewis county person was selected by a packed convention, therefore there is no Mason county man to vote for.
